CLASSIFICATION: G*Revocation of decision:

Under section 21A of the Act, if the Board is of the opinion that a classified interactive film contains contentions material (whether activated through use of a code or otherwise) that was not brought to the Board's attention before the classification was made and if the Board had been aware of the material it would have given the film a different classification, the Board must revoke the classification.

Review of Decision:

Section 42 of the Act provides that certain persons, including the applicant for classification, may apply to the Classification Review Board for a review of the decision of the Classification Board. Generally, an application for review must be made within 30 days after the applicant received notice of the decision (section 43). More information about the review process is available at www.classification.gov.au or by contacting the Secretary to the Classification Review Board on (02) 9289 7100.
